

14 Tips For Success

By John Simms, Ph.D.

- 1). Success is relative and subjective in nature. In other words, success could be different from person to person and from situation to situation.
- 2). Success is a goal or an objective that was achieved either in the short or long term.
- 3). Success has many elements, proper timing, luck and guidance being among them.
- 4). Within reason, anyone can be successful in anything through proper planning and implementation.
- 5). Many people fail to become rich, famous and successful using the law of attraction. There's more to it than likes attract to likes, positive thinking, affirmations, visualization, etc that self help gurus and personal development experts don't publicly mention.
- 6). With success, it could be lonely at the top and bottom.
- 7). With success, the key to failure is trying to please everyone.
- 8). Even some of the very successful, don't feel successful.
- 9). Even those who are rich, famous and successful may feel insecure, depressed and unfulfilled.
- 10). Even some of the smartest and talented people don't become rich, famous or successful due to various reasons.
- 11). With success, have balance between realism and idealism.
- 12). You can be successful if you're open-minded, willing, focused and determined.
- 13). In regards to success, having a mentor is very important in so many different ways.
- 14). Use this formula for success: Think, Believe and Apply.

Tips provided by John Simms, a successful person in life and business and is a multi-business owner and consultant, master life strategist, personal potential expert, psychotherapist, counselor, polymath, etc

For more information about John Simms and his services, please go to www.johnsimmsbusiness.com

Important Note

You have permission to use these tips, as long as the author's name and his website address are included.