1). How did you get a chance to work with large corporations?

Answer: Without saying too much, through proper planning and implementation not to mention competence, professionalism, smart marketing, rapport, enticing proposals and/or presentations, etc

2). When you worked with large corporations, what surprised you?

Answer: There's a lot of incompetence at the executive level. And large corporations overlook and don't utilize existing talent and resources to improve themselves among other things.

3). What are the biggest problems you've encountered with large corporations?

Answer: At all corporate levels, the lack of care, appreciation, respect, communication, professionalism and productivity not to mention all the red tape, bureaucracy and incompetence.

4). Why did large corporations want to work with you?

Answer: Mostly for sales and marketing purposes due to my backgrounds in business, psychology, counseling, etc. In regards to non profits, fundraising.

5). Why did you stop working with large corporations?

Answer: For many reasons. Through self reflection, I decided to use my capabilities in order to help small businesses and individuals because a lot of them don't have the necessary resources and opportunities they desperately need and want. And on top of that, I can relate to small businesses and the average person due to my working class upbringing. And I also like the freedom, simplicity and appreciation with small businesses and dislike the attitudes, treatment, red tape and bureaucracies of large corporations.
