1). Why do small businesses and individuals want to partner with you?

Answer: For many reason. Mostly because I'm a successful businessperson who's very resourceful and I can customize to their needs, wants and situations. And on top of that, I value relationships and could make small businesses and individuals better among other things.

2). I was wondering if you still do secret partnerships?

Answer: Yes.

3). I want you to partner with me in my new business. Would you be interested?

Answer: I may be interested, but I need more information. And just to let you know, I do start, operate, invest and expand businesses.

4). Do you want to do a joint venture with me?

Answer: It depends on the situation and what you're offering. And yes, I do joint ventures with others.

5). Have you ever partnered with a network marketer?

Answer: Yes I have believe it or not. You may want to read my free special report called "Network Marketing Secrets Exposed."

6). Why do you only work with small businesses?

Answer: For difference reasons such as, but not limited to the following down below: (A-D)

A). There's a lot of red tape and bureaucracy with large companies whereas working with small businesses and individuals it's easier to get things done in more ways than one.

B). I felt that small businesses and individuals appreciated me more than larger organizations.

C). Several small businesses and individuals don't have a whole lot of money and resources at their disposal. That being said, I wanted to provide opportunities and help them prosper and succeed.

D). I can relate to underdogs, small businesses and the average person. Besides owning a small business, I consider myself an outsider and I grew up in a working class family. Needless to say, my life and corporate experiences had contributed to who I am today.
